Thank you Les for taking this on.

Travelling to Scotland and Oban

All recommendations for travel in the UK is to book early as July is peak holiday time

Getting to Europe

There may be Summer flights directly to Glasgow and Edinburgh. However it's often best to take a good return deal, to a major airport, London or Dublin. Then use the smaller companies for more local flights, Easyjet and RyanAir serve both.

All US Citizens will need an ETA to enter Great Britain next summer. Please research this carefully Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA)

The UK launched an ETA system, which is being rolled out incrementally and aimed at visitors who do not need a visa for short stays in the UK, or those who do not already have a UK immigration status prior to travelling. Effective January 8, 2025, all U.S. citizens transiting the UK or travelling to the UK for tourism, family visits, business meetings, conferences, or short-term study for 6 months or less will require an Electronic Travel Authorization (ETA) prior to travel. U.S. citizens can apply for ETAs as of 27 November 2024

ETA - Update from GOV. UK:

You no longer need an ETA to transit through the UK if you will not pass through border control ('airside' transit).
